Hanover Township to Host Property Appeal Pop-up Event

Hanover Township Assessor Khaja Moinuddin and Supervisor Brian P. McGuire will host a property appeals pop-up event from 3:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Monday, November 30 at the Senior Center, 240 S. IL Route 59, Bartlett.

Residents will have the opportunity to sit down with staff from the Cook County Assessor's Office at the Senior Center (240 S. IL Route 59, Bartlett) to ask questions and file an appeal. Residents who purchased their home from 2022 - 2026 should bring their closing documents to the event.

“Understanding a tax bill and filing an appeal can be extremely frustrating,” said Hanover Township Assessor Khaja Moinuddin. “With this event, residents will have the opportunity to talk one-on-one with trained staff to walk through the documents, clarify any concerns, and leave with their appeal filed.”

Hanover Township is open for appeals with the Cook County Assessor’s Office through December 7.

The seminar is also co-sponsored by State Senator Cristina Castro and State Representative Maura Hirschauer.
